Session - Collaborative Response: Every Child Deserves a Team

Come learn about Collaborative Response, an organizational mindset that involves some fundamental shifts for schools and districts and the good news is that some likely already exist in your building!

Listening,
Laughing and Leading

This session explores how listening and laughing create trusting relationships with students and colleagues, foster positive classroom and school climate, and develop authentic leadership. Themes are introduced with light hearted songs on guitar and banjo inspired by the writings of Ron Rolheiser, Rob Holden, Henri Nouwen, Daniel Goleman, Rachel Remen and Parker J. Palmer.

Julianne
Harvey

Prioritize your own mental health by learning how to say 'no' with kindness and without guilt so students can see how it's done.

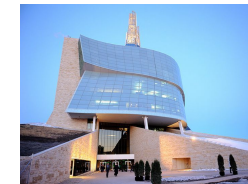

Carolyn Strom

Mount Royal University will offer a series of sessions with a reading focus, working with students who struggle with literacy. Carolyn Strom, PhD will open this symposium on Friday February 18 @ 9:00 am.

Canadian Military Museum

Calgary Military Museum will be offering daily tours and two sessions during convention. Sessions will honor Indigenous and Afghanistan veterans and Women in War through "Remembrance and Commemoration".

Canadian Museum for Human Rights

Canadian Museum for Human Rights (CMHR) will be offering sessions and tours on both days.
