Re PEC Election Forum Dates

The Election Forum dates for the 2021 PEC election have now been set along with the Zoom webinar links. Your immediate assistance in communicating this information out to your members is appreciated. Information has been posted to the ATA webpage with registration required to attend the forums. Members will need to log into the Member's Only page of the website in order to register. This will ensure only ATA members attend the forums. Please do not post these links on publicly accessible portions of your websites.

I ask that you post this general information on your websites and share via your social media networks. Please direct members to the ATA website. Under News and Information, members will find the PEC Election Forums link.

If you have any questions, please contact me at robert.mazzotta@ata.ab.ca or Nikki Cloutier at nikki.cloutier@ata.ab.ca. Thank you.
